American AgCredit and Kitchen Table Advisors Partner to Support Small Farmers and Ranchers

Santa Rosa, CA — American AgCredit today announced a strategic partnership with Kitchen Table Advisors to support the economic viability of sustainable small farmers and ranchers. An independent project of the Trust for Conservation Innovation, Kitchen Table Advisors empowers farmers and ranchers throughout Northern California with the business tools, knowledge and resources they need to flourish.

With a $10,000 sponsorship, American AgCredit will support continuing education for Kitchen Table Advisor's business advisors. The partnership will officially launch with a train-the-trainer event to be held at American AgCredit's headquarters in Santa Rosa on Wednesday, April 26, 2017. Speaker Gary Matteson, vice president of Young, Beginning, Small Farmer Programs for Farm Credit Council, will equip the advisors to help beginning farmers achieve credit readiness.

"Support of young, beginning and small farmers and ranchers is at the heart of our mission," said American AgCredit CEO Byron Enix. "We are pleased to support Kitchen Table Advisors in this joint effort to help their clients build the foundation for a successful future."

"We are deeply committed to the long-term economic viability of our region's diverse small farms and ranches. Through this exciting partnership with American AgCredit, we will be able to help our clients better understand the tools and resources that can support their growing businesses," said Kitchen Table Advisors' Executive Director Anthony Chang.
