SBA PPP PARTNERSHIP APPLICATION

The screenshots below provide guidance on the completion of our SBA PPP online loan application for applicants who will submit an application for a partnership or an LLC that files taxes as a partnership.

Due to Limitations within our SBA PPP Online Application, the loan amount will not be calculated correctly for partnership applications. Please enter the information from the spreadsheet on the indicated fields within the online application.

AAC will adjust your loan amount in the online application, prior to submission to SBA, to match the amount documented within the spreadsheet calculator you provide.

When beginning to complete the provided SBA PPP Application Loan Calculation Spreadsheet, make sure you select the “Partnership SBA-PPP Loan” tab.

For Partnerships or LLCs that file form 1065 Tax Return, this calculator is intended to support the applicant and/or representative in the completion of the SBA-PPP loan application. Enter information into cells that are shaded yellow (when applicable) to complete the loan calculator. If a yellow cell does not apply, please leave blank.

Due to SBA requirements, supporting documentation is required to complete a SBA-PPP loan application. The supporting documentation must adequately and clearly support, and identify (e.g. highlight, circle, etc.), the data entered into the yellow fields on this worksheet and the corresponding application cells. Lack of adequate or clear documentation will slow or in some cases prevent the processing of your SBA-PPP loan application

(1) Any compensation to an employee whose principal residence is outside of the United States is not eligible as part of the SBA-PPP Payroll Calculation

(2) If the applicant applied for and received a Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) between January 31, 2020 and April 3, 2020 and the loan was for the purpose of paying payroll cost, business mortgage, rent, utilities and interest on any other business debt obligations that were incurred before February 15, 2020, the applicant may apply for and use the PPP loan proceeds to refinance the portion of the EIDL loan that has already been advanced.

 The information provided in this tool is based upon the best and most current information provided by the SBA. It should not be relied upon as a substitute for legal or accounting advice from applicant's own advisors. Please note that providing an accurate calculation and documentation of total payroll costs (e.g. paid salary/wages, allowable paid benefits, allowable paid taxes) is the responsibility of the applicant, which will be attested to as part of the application. Therefore, applicant must ensure that the payroll costs utilized to calculate the loan amount fully align with the most recent parameters required by SBA, as described in the SBA Interim Final Rule, SBA/Treasury Department PPP FAQs, and any other guidance as updated on the SBA PPP site. If applicant has questions on the allowable inclusion of certain payroll costs, it is recommended that they consult their own accounting or legal counsel. Nothing provided herein is to be construed as a promise or guarantee about the approval or forgiveness of an applicant's loan.
