

AGYOUTH FINANCING PROGRAM

INVESTING IN AGRICULTURE'S FUTURE

Our AgYouth Financing Program is an important part of the Association's commitment to the next generation of farmers and ranchers. We proudly support young people who have joined a 4-H club, Future Farmers of America (FFA) chapter or similar agricultural youth organization and who have an interest in agriculture.

Our program offers:

- Interest-free financing for youth livestock projects
- Easy online application process

Financial skills for youth in agriculture

The program serves to emphasize the importance of maintaining accurate records, budgeting, and honoring obligations to repay - providing the future farmer or rancher with tools, skills, and contacts to prepare for a rewarding and successful career in agriculture.

FAQs

Who can apply?

Youth agriculture program participants nine years of age or older as of the beginning of the fair year, who demonstrate a C average (2.0 GPA) or better in school, are eligible to apply.

What are the guidelines?

Funds may only be used to purchase and care for a project animal. Each student must keep accurate records available for a chapter or club advisor. At the end of the project or when the animal is sold, funds must be repaid.

How is the program set up?

AgYouth funds are available for up to $2,500 per year, per student. Advances are made payable to the student and parent or guardian.

How do I apply?

1. Contact your local youth agriculture program, or visit agloan.com/resources/agyouth-program/
2. Complete an application and agreement. A parent and adult club supervisor signature are required.
3. Include a copy of your most recent report card.
4. Submit application and report card no later than 60 days before the applicable sale date or fair via the online application tool.

Restrictions apply to this program.
